Online Education

1. Does all programs/courses were completed on time.	Yes
2. Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs.	It was in March 2020, when studies and campus activities came to an abrupt end, the Management of St. Francis College for Women was determined to ensure that the education of our students was not paused. The initiative by our IT Administrators brought a glimmer of hope for all students and faculty members of St. Francis College for Women. It was an effort to ensure education continuity. But fortunately, all the academic sessions were completed by March 2020. But the abrupt closure due to pandemic prevented the review and revision of syllabus which is usually done at the end of every semester. The following were the measures taken by the college to ensure the students were well prepared to face the exams whenever it would be conducted and also begin the classes for the next semester <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •As the IT team worked to get the student interface for online classes in place, the department of Computer Science took on the responsibility of orienting faculty on the nuances of online teaching and evaluation. Simultaneously class mentors-initiated communication to respective classes and oriented the students. • Faculty Members attended webinars and workshops that dealt with Online Teaching Methodologies as well as Open Educational Resources. • The Faculty Development Cell of the college organized workshops (national & International) with experienced academicians in the field of Educational IT Applications •The teachers and students interacted regularly through the online classroom and clarified all the doubts the students had and even conducted revision tests for them using the google forms. •Throughout the period of the lockdown till the exams were scheduled the staff mentors of every class kept in touch with the students providing academic and emotional counselling to keep up the morale. •Our college entered into a collaboration with COURSERA for its 'Coursera for Campus' programme to bring the opportunity of learning over 3,800 courses, guided projects, specializations and professional certifications from leading universities and companies. St.Francis College for Learning Program on Coursera has clocked in 4850 verified course completions with 1998 unique course completers. •College Library ensured that students were made available digital access to text books and journals. On request, reading material was scanned and sent to class teachers who then passed it on to students. Students could write to the library to get access to any specific book or journal which would then be scanned and sent to them. • A list of Open Educational Resources was made available to the students through their class representatives and class mentors •In addition to online teaching, a number of online resources are used by the faculty and students to share/access notes, assign tests and presentations and ensure that the best can be imparted to the students. •After few months of this exercise, we have understood that this was the best we could have done. As more and more colleges are now slowly beginning to replicate our model, we believe that our efforts in pioneering this initiative stands vindicated. As an institution we are committed to ensuring that our students receive the best education under all circumstances.
